General Notes on Applications

- Applicants with foreign degrees must have them evaluated against equivalent Canadian degrees
- Applicants must identify a Mentor and a Sponsor at the time of application or within 90 days of acceptance
- “Planning” is defined, for the purposes of employment, as “the scientific, aesthetic and orderly disposition of land, resources, facilities and services with a view to securing the physical, economic and social efficiency, health and well-being of urban and rural communities.”
 - Employment in planning is substantiated by a letter confirming employment and a job description

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

- Applicants must demonstrate the equivalent of 5 years of responsible professional planning experience through submission of a PLAR portfolio
 - “Responsible professional planning experience” is defined as experience that:
 - “Comprises analysis, projections, design or program development which specifically requires consideration of the inter-relationships of space and time among resources, facilities and activities, and which expresses this consideration in a manner to influence the deposition of land or the allocation of resources, facilities or services;
 - “Shows a specific relationship to public policies or programs for controlling or influencing the development of communities; and
 - “Comprises a substantive component of initiative, judgment, substantial involvement and personal accountability or definition or preparation of significant elements of the program of work.”
- It will almost certainly take more than 5 years of employment to accumulate 5 years of responsible professional planning experience

PLAR Assessors' Responsibility

- Review the self-assessment grid to determine:
 - Does the applicant have a reasonable balance of competencies?
 - Does the evidence supplied support the self-evaluation?
- Review the portfolio to determine:
 - Does the work experience match the grid?
 - Is 5 years responsible professional planning experience evidenced in the grid and portfolio?
- Does the applicant meet the criteria for PSB and membership in a PTIA and/or CIP?

PSB

Profession in Canada

Self-assessment Grid

- Compares applicant's skills to the competencies established through Planning for the Future (PFF)
- Applicant is not expected to have knowledge/experience in all areas in the grid
- Applicant is expected to have a reasonable balance of competencies
 - Self-assessed at "medium" or better in at least a majority of both the functional and enabling competencies
- Applicant's claimed knowledge/experience should be borne out by the portfolio and other evidence

PSB

For the Planning
Profession in Canada

Self-assessment Grid (continued)

- Functional competencies demonstrate knowledge of the technical skills required of planners
- Enabling competencies demonstrate knowledge of the people skills required of planners
- “Good” applicants will be well-rounded, not narrowly focused

PSB

For the Planning
Profession in Canada

PLAR Portfolio

- Applicant must establish, through the portfolio, a minimum 5 years responsible professional planning experience
- Portfolio should list projects on which the applicant has worked and his/her involvement in them
- Portfolio should substantiate knowledge/experience claimed in the self-assessment grid

Profession in Canada

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

Assessors' Judgment

- Assessors should ask themselves:
 - Does this applicant have a combination of education and experience equal to or better than an applicant with an accredited degree?
 - Will this applicant's education/experience provide an adequate base to permit him/her to complete PSB's process and become certified?
 - Will this applicant, having gone through PSB's process and having achieved certification, be a credit to CIP and his/her PTIA?
- If the answer to the first question is "yes" and to the second and third is "probably", the applicant should be admitted

PSB

PSB Staff Support for Assessors

PSB Staff will:

- Ensure the application is complete
- Determine, based on the guideline, whether the applicant is employed in planning
- Make an initial assessment of whether the applicant is likely to meet the 5 year experience requirement (applicants employed in planning for less than 5 years total will not pass this assessment)
- Handle the logistics of application review

PSB

For the Planning
Profession in Canada

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

Assessment Process – Short-term

- One assessor will review each application
- In the event that assessor does not recommend admission of the applicant, the application will be reviewed by a second assessor
- If the second assessor does not recommend admission of the applicant, the applicant will be advised s/he has not been admitted
- If the second assessor recommends admission, the application will go to a third assessor whose decision will be determinative
- All assessors are asked to provide written reasons for their recommendations

PSB

For the Planning
Profession in Canada

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

Assessment Process – Long-term

- Two assessors will review each application
- If they agree on whether the applicant should be admitted, the applicant is advised of the decision
- If they disagree, the application is sent to a third assessor for review; the third assessor's decision will be determinative
- All assessors are asked to provide written reasons for their assessments
